A. Resolutions

2006/4. The right to development

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights,

Recalling also the outcomes of all major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic and social fields,

Recalling further the Declaration on the Right to Development adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 41/128 of 4 December 1986,

Stressing the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (see A/CONF/157/24) adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights in 1993,

Recalling all General Assembly and Commission on Human Rights resolutions on the right to development,

Emphasizing the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 establishing the Human Rights Council,

Welcoming the outcome of the seventh session of the Commission on Human Rights' Working Group on the Right to Development, held from 9 to 13 January 2006

Bearing in mind paragraph 6 of Assembly resolution 60/251,

1. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations adopted by consensus by the Working Group on the Right to Development at its seventh session in January 2006;
2. Decides to renew the mandate of the Working Group on the Right to Development for a period of one year;
3. Requests the High-Level Task Force on the Implementation of the Right to Development to meet for a period of five working days before the end of 2006 with a view to implementing the relevant recommendations contained in the report of the seventh session of the Working Group;
4. Requests the Working Group to meet for a period of five working days in the first three months of 2007;
5. Requests the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights, or its successor expert-advice mechanism, to pursue its ongoing work on the right to development in accordance with the relevant provisions of General Assembly and Commission on Human Rights resolutions, and in compliance with decisions to be taken by the Human Rights Council;
6. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to take all the necessary measures and to allocate the necessary resources for the effective implementation of the present resolution;
7. Decides to consider the next report of the Working Group on the Right to Development at its session in March/April 2007.

22nd meeting

30 June 2006

[Adopted without a vote.]

2006/5. The Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action

The Human Rights Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 56/266 of 27 March 2002 by which it endorsed the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.189/12, chap. I) adopted by the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance, held in Durban, South Africa, from 31 August to 8 September 2001,

Recalling also Commission on Human Rights resolutions 2001/5 of 18 April 2001, 2002/68 of 25 April 2002, 2003/30 of 23 April 2003, 2005/64 of 20 April 2005 and all relevant resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights,

1. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action on its fourth session (E/CN.4/2006/18);

2. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to select, in close consultations with the regional groups, five highly qualified experts to study the content and scope of the substantive gaps in the existing international instruments to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, including but being not limited to the areas identified in the conclusions of the Chair of the high-level seminar that took place during the fourth session of the Intergovernmental Working Group; the group of experts, in consultation with human rights treaty bodies, the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and other relevant mandate-holders, should produce a base document that contains concrete recommendations on the means or avenues to bridge these gaps, including but not limited to the drafting of a new optional protocol to the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination or the adoption of new instruments such as conventions or declarations;

3. Requests the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination to conduct a further study on possible measures to strengthen the implementation of the Convention through additional recommendations or the update of its monitoring procedures;

4. Decides that both documents should be presented to the Intergovernmental Working Group during its fifth session;

5. Decides also to extend the mandate of the Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action for a further period of three years;

6. Decides further to remain seized of the issue of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance at its second session in September 2006.

24th meeting

30 June 2006

[Adopted without a vote.]

B. Decisions

2006/101. Titles of officers

At its 1st meeting, on 19 June 2006, the Human Rights Council decided, without a vote, that its officers would be known as President and Vice-President.

2006/1 02. Extension by the Human Rights Council of all mandates, mechanisms, functions and responsibilities of the Commission on Human Rights

The Human Rights Council,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006, entitled “Human Rights Council”, and in particular its paragraph 6,

Stressing the importance of avoiding any protection gap during the transitional period, in accordance with paragraph 6 of that Assembly resolution,

1. Decides to extend exceptionally for one year, subject to the review to be undertaken by the Council in conformity with General Assembly resolution 60/251, the mandates and the mandate-holders of all the Commission’s special procedures, of the

Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights as well as the procedure established in accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) (1503 procedure), as listed in the annex to the present resolution;

2. Requests, in this regard, the special procedures, the Sub-Commission and the 1503 procedure to continue with the implementation of their mandates and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to continue to provide the necessary support to them;

3. Decides to approve the following arrangements for the transitional period:

(a) To consider at its next session the reports of all special procedures submitted to the sixty-second session of the Commission on Human Rights;

(b) That the final session of the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights shall be convened starting 31 July for a period of up to four weeks, if so decided by the Sub-Commission, including its pre-sessional and in-sessional Working Groups, and shall give due priority to preparing:

(i) A paper on the Sub-Commission's record that gives its own vision and recommendations for future expert advice to the Council, to be submitted to the Council in 2006;

(ii) A detailed list describing the status of all the Sub-Commission's ongoing studies as well as an overall review of its activities, to be submitted to the Council in 2006;

4. Also decides that the Working Groups and the Social Forum of the Sub-Commission shall be convened to hold their annual sessions in accordance with current practices in order to contribute to the Sub-Commission's paper as described in subparagraph 3 (b) (i) above;

5. Further decides to consider at its forthcoming session all outstanding reports referred by the Commission on Human Rights to the Human Rights Council.

23rd meeting

30 June 2006

[Adopted without a vote.]

2006/103. The Universal Periodic Review

The Human Rights Council,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 entitled “Human Rights Council” and in particular the decision of the Assembly that the Human Rights Council shall undertake a universal periodic review based on objective and reliable information, of the fulfilment by each State of its human rights obligations and commitments in a manner which ensures universality of coverage and equal treatment with respect to all States,

Taking into consideration that the review shall be a cooperative mechanism, based on an interactive dialogue, with the full involvement of the country concerned and with consideration given to its capacity-building needs and that such a mechanism shall complement and not duplicate the work of treaty bodies,

Bearing in mind that Members of the Council shall be reviewed under the universal periodic review mechanism during their term of membership,

Also bearing in mind that the General Assembly decided that the Council shall develop the modalities and necessary time allocation for the universal periodic review mechanism within one year after the holding of its first session, as called for in resolution 60/251,

Underlining the importance of a comprehensive implementation of Assembly resolution 60/251,

1. Decides to establish an intersessional open-ended intergovernmental working group to develop the modalities of the universal periodic review mechanism;
2. Decides that the working group shall have at its disposal ten days (or twenty 3-hour meetings) of fully serviced meetings and that it shall allow sufficient time and flexibility for the development of the universal periodic review mechanism;

3. Requests the President of the Council to chair the working group with the assistance, if necessary, of one or more facilitators from among permanent missions in Geneva, to undertake these open-ended intersessional, transparent, well scheduled and inclusive consultations with the participation of all stakeholders;

4. Decides that informal consultations could begin immediately through an open-ended consultative process in order to compile proposals and relevant information and experiences, to facilitate open-ended discussions appropriately scheduled by the Chairperson with the involvement of all stakeholders;

5. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the working group with background information on existing mechanisms for periodic review (e.g. the International Labour Organization, World Trade Organization, International Monetary Fund, International Atomic Energy Agency, New Programme for Africa's Development, Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, Organization of American States and the Council of Europe) and to compile the contributions of all stakeholders;

6. Requests the working group to regularly report to the Council starting in September 2006 on progress made in the development of modalities and necessary time allocation for the universal periodic review, as requested by paragraphs 5 (e) and 9 of General Assembly resolution 60/251.

23rd meeting

30 June 2006

[Adopted without a vote.]

2006/104. Implementation of paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 60/251

The Human Rights Council,

Underlining the importance of a comprehensive implementation of General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006,

1. Decides to establish an open-ended intergovernmental working group to formulate concrete recommendations on the issue of reviewing and, where necessary, improving and rationalizing all mandates, mechanisms, functions and responsibilities in order to maintain a system of special procedures, expert advice and a complaint procedure, in conformity with General Assembly resolution 60/251, through open-ended, intersessional, transparent, well scheduled and inclusive consultations, with the participation of all stakeholders;

2. Decides that the Working Group shall have at its disposal twenty days (or forty 3-hour meetings) of fully serviced meetings and that it shall allow sufficient time and flexibility for the fulfilment of its mandate;

3. Requests the President of the Council to chair the Working Group with the assistance, if necessary, of one or more facilitators from among permanent missions in Geneva, to undertake these open-ended intersessional, transparent, well scheduled and inclusive consultations with the participation of all stakeholders;

4. Decides that informal consultations could begin immediately through an open-ended consultative process in order to compile proposals and relevant information and experiences, and to facilitate open-ended discussions appropriately scheduled by the Chairperson with the involvement of all stakeholders;

5. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Working Group with background information on the functioning of the mandates and mechanisms and to compile the contributions of all stakeholders, including the inputs of the special procedures, the Sub-Commission for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights and non-governmental organizations;

6. Requests the Working Group to regularly report to the Council, starting in September 2006, on progress made to allow for the completion of the review, as requested by paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 60/251.

C. President's statements

2006/PRST.1 The entry into force of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

At the first session of the Human Rights Council, held from 19 to 30 June 2006, in connection with the Council's consideration of the item entitled "Implementation of General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 entitled 'Human Rights Council'", the President of the Council made a statement which:

1. Welcomes the entry into force, on 22 June 2006, of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, following ratification by 20 States;
2. Reiterates General Assembly resolution 60/148 of 16 December 2005, which inter alia "calls upon States parties to give early consideration to signing and ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, which provides further measures for use in the fight against and prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment”;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure, within the overall budgetary framework of the United Nations, the provision of adequate staff and facilities for the bodies and mechanisms involved in combating torture and assisting victims of torture commensurate with the strong support expressed by Member States for combating torture and assisting victims of torture.

2006/PRST.2 Hostage-taking

At the first session of the Human Rights Council, held from 19 to 30 June 2006, in connection with the Council’s consideration of the item entitled “Implementation of General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 entitled ‘Human Rights Council’”, the President of the council made a statement which:

1. Reaffirms that all acts of hostage-taking, wherever and by whomever committed, are a serious crime aimed at the destruction of human rights and are, under any circumstances, unjustifiable;
2. Strongly condemns all acts of hostage-taking anywhere in the world, in particular the most recent acts of hostage-taking, including the murder of four diplomats of the embassy of the Russian Federation in Baghdad, as well as other cases of hostage-taking involving civilians in Iraq;
3. Reaffirms that hostage-taking calls for concerted efforts on the part of all States and the international community, acting in full compliance with international humanitarian law and international human rights standards, in order to bring such abhorrent practices to an end.
