Bangladesh's voice
is
the voice of reason

Bangladesh remains committed to:

1. striving to uphold highest standards of human rights at home and abroad;
2. working with governments and civil society to promote, preserve and protect all humane values;
3. empowerment of women and gender justice as ends in themselves and means to achieve equity and harmony in society;
4. all measures to enhance democracy, pluralism and tolerance;
5. sharing with the developing world innovative ideas like 'microcredit' and 'non-formal education' as tools of poverty alleviation and upliftment of the poor;
6. helping stabilize strife-torn regions as a top troop contributor to peace-keeping and a most active advocate of peace-building;
