

Non-paper on the General Guidelines for the preparation of information under UPR(REV.3)

Reaffirming the relevant provisions, related to the Universal Periodic Review, of General Assembly resolution 60/251 and of Human Rights Council resolution 5/1 containing the institution-building package, the HRC adopts the following General Guidelines:

- I. Description of the methodology and the broad consultation process followed for the preparation of information provided under UPR;
- II. Background of the country under review and framework, particularly normative and institutional framework, for the promotion and protection of Human Rights: constitution, legislation, policy measures, national jurisprudence, HR infrastructure including and scope of international obligations identified in the "basis of review" ...;
- III. Promotion and protection of Human Rights on the ground: implementation of international Human Rights obligations identified in the "basis of review", national legislation and voluntary commitments, national human rights institutions activities, public awareness of human rights, cooperation with HR mechanisms...;
- IV. Identification of achievements, best practices, challenges and constraints;
- V. Key national priorities, initiatives and commitments that the State concerned intends to undertake to overcome these challenges, difficulties and improve Human Rights situations on the ground;
- VI. Expectations of the State concerned in terms of capacity building and requests, if any, for technical assistance;
- VII. Presentation by the State concerned of the follow-up to the previous review.