Human rights violation/s or abuses alleged to have occurred	A root cause of terrorist attacks and other human rights violations against Israelis is justification and defense of terrorism by various international organizations. One of the organizations defending those linked to terror is Amnesty International. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In September 2017, Amnesty referred to Addameer fieldworker Salah Hammouri, who was arrested on August 23, 2017, as a “human rights defenders.” Hammouri was previously arrested in 2005 for “attempting to assassinate Ovadia Yosef...and for his involvement with the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine.” • In 2015, blogger “Elder of Zion” revealed that, in 2007, Amnesty campaigner Saleh Hijazi’s Facebook profile picture was a photo of Leila Khaled, a PFLP terrorist and airline hijacker, while in 2012, his profile picture was a photo of Khader Adnan, a leader of the Islamic Jihad terror organization. In addition, while studying at Lawrence University in Wisconsin, Hijazi wrote his thesis on “Yasser Arafat: A Palestinian Prophet in the Formation of Palestinian National Identity.” • On August 17, 2015, a series of articles published in the Times (London) revealed that Yasmin Hussein, Amnesty International’s Director of Faith and Human

	Rights and formerly Director of International Advocacy, has links to the Muslim Brotherhood and possibly to Hamas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Following the January 2011 conviction and sentencing of Ittijah head Ameer Makhoul on charges of spying for Hezbollah, AI claimed, “Ameer Makhoul’s jailing is a very disturbing development...[He] is well known for his human rights activism on behalf of Palestinians in Israel and those living under Israeli occupation. We fear that this may be the underlying reason for his imprisonment.” • In 2010, senior staff member Gita Saghal was suspended after she condemned AI’s alliance with an alleged Taliban supporter. • In December 2013, admitted to working with the Alkarama foundation, a Geneva-based organization claiming to promote human rights, whose Qatari co-founder, Abd al-Rahman bin ‘Umayr al-Nu’aymi (Nu’aymi), has been accused of financing Al Qaeda and its affiliates in Syria, Iraq, Somalia and Yemen. • In October 2021, Amnesty published a statement condemning the decision by the Israeli Ministry to designate six Palestinian NGOs as terrorist organizations. According to the statement, “Palestinian human rights defenders have always borne the brunt of the repression. This decision is an alarming escalation that threatens to shut down the work of Palestine’s most prominent civil society organizations. The decades-long failure of the international community to challenge grave Israeli human rights abuses and impose meaningful consequences for them has emboldened Israeli authorities to act in this brazen manner.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On October 22, 2021, the Israeli Ministry of Defense designated six Palestinian NGOs as terrorist organizations on the basis of allegations that they were operated by and for the benefit of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, designated as a terrorist organization by the US, EU, Canada, and Israel. By defending terrorists, Amnesty International is promoting human rights violations and violence against Israeli civilians. Amnesty International must be held accountable for their crimes.
